Working Hard for your Hard Work

Using Lien Laws to Help Your Business

Don't miss this live event with insights on how to use lien laws to help you get paid faster and much more!

Lien Research and the Home Builders Association of Tri-Cities are proud to present this seminar created to help you better understand the lien laws we currently have in Washington State, Idaho, and Oregon. This seminar features Jason Piskel and Benjamin McDonnell, practicing attorneys with Piskel Yahne Kovarik. Each will present valuable insight and understanding of what can be a very complicated, intricate legal process. Our speakers' law practices are heavily focused on construction law; including liens, bond claims and other payment remedies. They frequently teach these topics at continuing legal education programs for other lawyers.

Topics Covered in This Webinar
